Message from Mrs. Woolley

Dear Families,

It has been a truly lovely week here at Brentnall, with a calm and purposeful atmosphere across the school. We have been delighted to welcome several visitors, all of whom have commented on the exceptionally positive learning attitudes demonstrated by our children. They were particularly impressed by how engaged, respectful and enthusiastic pupils are in their lessons, as well as the high-quality learning environments in every classroom. It is always a pleasure to see our children taking such pride in their work and our school—well done to everyone for contributing to such a positive and successful week.

I hope that you enjoy the bank holiday weekend and I will see you all on Tuesday!

Mrs. Woolley 😊
